

THEVES BUSY OVER SUNDAY

Homes Are Entered, Rooms Robbed, Garden Hose is Taken, Autos Stripped.

Activity of Mexican thieves caused a number of reports of thefts of articles ranging from a prestolite tank to jewelry to be made to the police department Saturday night and Sunday morning. It is believed that the burglaries are the work of an organized gang of Mexican thieves, and stringent methods are being adopted to keep all Mexicans who are not employed from going above Main street.

H. S. Patterson, of 1065 East Nevada street, reported that burglars had entered his home sometime Saturday night and stolen a German pistol, and about $30 in cash.

Gan Meter Robbed. C. E. Butten, of 1401 North El Paso, Sunday morning, reported that a gas meter in his home had been broken into by thieves, but that nothing had been taken.

A jewel case and three gold bracelets were stolen from the home of Clarence Rand, at 1000 North Oregon street sometime Saturday night. The robbery was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Rand Sunday morning.

A suit case and a suit of clothes were taken from a room occupied by J. G. Kenan, in the Plaza hotel, Saturday night. The room was entered during the absence of Mr. Kenan.

H. Johnson, of 210 Texas street, reported that an amount of cash had been taken from a table in his room Saturday night. The names of suspects were taken to the police.

Watch Stolen. T. A. Welder, a roomer at the Argyle hotel, missed a gold watch and $20 in cash that had been taken from a table in his room sometime Saturday night.

A bicycle owned by H. Richey was stolen Saturday evening in the business district. The wheel was found a short time by its owner, who returned and found it gone.

Hose Taken. Seventy-five feet of rubber hose were taken from the front lawn of R. A. Morris, at 1915 Montana street, Saturday night according to a report made to the police.

J. B. Nigra, reported that a prestolite tank had been taken from his automobile Saturday night while it was standing at Fourth and Stanton streets.

Estanislado Perez, is being held in the city jail charged with theft from the person of an aged Mexican near the gas tank on Canal street Saturday night. Perez was caught by mounted officers Castilloy and Yater in the act of searching the clothes of his victim, who was also taken into custody as a witness.

An automobile was stolen from Mrs. B. Y. Harris's automobile in front of her home at 715 Myrtle avenue. The coils were taken Sunday night.

Four other men in the automobile were injured.

CHARGED WITH DEFRAUDING AGED WOMAN IN MAY DEAL

Dimitio Gossard was arrested Saturday afternoon by city detectives following a complaint made by an aged Mexican woman residing at 804 Broadway, that Gossard had defrauded her out of $20.

Gossard, it is alleged, obtained the sum from the woman by telling her that he was going to El Paso to buy a quantity of hay. On his arrival here it is alleged he sold a quantity of hay belonging to the woman who failed to hear from him.

PROGRESSIVES FAVOR FUSION

Arizona Factions Showing Signs of Desire to Join Forces in Campaign.

Douglas, Ariz., Feb. 28.—A strong sentiment in favor of fusion of the Republican and Progressive parties within the state is becoming evident in Cochise county, where the Progressive element in the past several years has been strong. The same tendency is apparent in Tucson, where the factions are already on very friendly terms, and there are also evidences in Phoenix of a desire to show a united front against the Democrats in the coming campaign.

The tendency among Progressives in Cochise county is to join with the Republicans, but not to become obliterated thereby. In other words, the Progressives want recognition. Men like Capt. John C. Greenway and James E. Logie, of Bisbee and Douglas, respectively, insist that there must be a platform and a set of candidates upon whom Progressives and Republicans can conscientiously agree.

There are evidences here of a boom for Dwight B. Heard, Progressive national committeeman, for Republican candidate for governor under such a fusion plan, which would also provide for a Republican in the United States house of representatives, and a candidate for the United States senate in opposition to Senator Henry H. Ashurst. Mr. Heard is a prominent land owner, cattleman, realty dealer and publisher of the Arizona Republican. Mr. Kibbey is a former Republican. Mr. Kibbey is a former Republican. ## Says Pretty Nurse "Doped" Him, Drug Habit Followed

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 28.—That he was made a morphine fiend by a careless nurse is the story told by Richard G. Wilson, sentenced to the superior court of Maricopa county to serve a penitentiary sentence of from one to two years for burglary. He has convinced county attorney Clyde M. Gandy that his story is true and a movement for his release, as soon as the prison physician pronounces him cured of the drug habit, has been started.

Wilson says that eight years ago he held a government position in Manila. He was injured and taken to a hospital, where a young and pretty nurse, who was in the charge of him, at night, it is claimed, she would quiet him with drugs and slip away. After he was discharged from the hospital he could not sleep and a doctor told him that he had unwittingly contracted the morphine habit. Finally landing in Phoenix he turned to the drug habit, he said he resorted to burglary.

Can You Be Trusted?

Beatrice Fairfax Writes About the Difference Between Responsible and Irresponsible.

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

THE great difference between responsible and irresponsible folk is that the latter appreciate the fact that everything in the world has a consequence.

"Irresponsible people are wholly untrustworthy because, with them, life is made up of moments which are separate and individual. As a matter of fact, life is made up of moments, but they are strung together and follow one another with a certain logic. Everything in life is consequent of something else and upon something else."

You are an untrustworthy person if you are untrustworthy to the way of imagining that you can cut yourself off from the consequences of your life. Life is a series of payments.

Go out without rubbers on a stormy day and sit about with damp feet. If you do, you will feel the consequences of that cold that is logically due you, you toss up your head and talk about the magnetic constitution that enables you to resist sickness. But nature, who spins with the grim certainty of the mathematical stars, must smile rather cynically. She knows that you are weakening that "magnificent constitution" of yours by your folly and that if you go on breaking down your physical resistance, some day you will fall an easy prey to disease.

For all we get in life, we pay. But, unfortunately, we do not pay always when we have just contracted and might feel that we got enough satisfaction out of our purchase so that taking the consequences was not too much to expect. It is generally true that we pay just about when we had hoped that the debt was outlawed.

What a sad fate for those who shall not excel! That tells the doom of folk. They do not excel, nor can they ever hope to unless they acquire a sense of responsibility to themselves, to the people about them, to their position in life and to life itself.

Strong people can almost cut themselves off from their heredity. Think of all the wonderful men who have made themselves and the place in life from which they started.

It is easier to cut yourself off from your heredity than from your responsibility to posterity. If you are weak, you leave behind you a heritage of weakness which makes for the next generation the struggle of cutting it self off from heredity—and you do not leave a heritage of strength to make it easier to rise above your weaknesses.

Any one of us can be trusted—if first we trust ourselves, and refuse to find that trust. It is all a matter of will-power.

The minute we look at life as a whole, a circle in which the past presses on the present and the present on the future, and the future again on the present, we feel that we are feeling of responsibility means that if we have any common sense at all, we recognize that the pattern of life is ours to weave, warp and wool.

The pattern of life? It is ours for the making, and when we recognize the responsibility we have to make our own little pattern, we are free and worthy of the whole we have become trustworthy individuals.
